

Al-Furat Al-Awsat Technical University

Mission Statement

Al-Furat Al-Awsat Technical University aspires to be the scientific reference for the promising futuristic generations through its professional scientific researches and innovations that effectively contribute to the international knowledge data base. Its mission includes; providing excellent updated technical education, preparing highly qualified technical staff capable of effectively dealing work challenges, provide researchers and academic staff with the financial and facilitative supports to carry out his/her scientific researches and publish their findings in rigid scientific journals, carry out technical educational programs that could meet the national work force requirements, establishing secure cooperation and friendship bonds with high ranked international universities and educational institutes. Promoting projects that could improve the life style of both local and national societies. Attracting and rewarding the international lecturers and professors who are willing to join the university academic staff for short and long term employment contracts.